Teaser	Health insurance companies cover the costs of medically necessary orthodontic treatment for children and adolescents under the age of 18.
Volltext	The health insurance covers the costs for medically necessary orthodontic corrections (orthodontic treatments) up to the age of 18. The decisive factor here is the start of the treatment. The medical necessity of kfO treatment is assessed on the basis of five degrees of severity, the so-called orthodontic indication groups (KIG). From grade 3 (KIG 3), the health insurance company pays the costs for children and adolescents under the age of 18 for the treatment. Adults usually have to pay for orthodontic treatment themselves. Exception: Medically particularly justified cases, for example in the case of severe jaw abnormalities, in which surgical corrections are also necessary.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Treatment plan of the orthodontist
Voraussetzungen	The severity of the malocclusion is defined by five orthodontic indication groups. At least the classification in the treatment requirement level 3 of the indication groups is required.
Kosten	For the treatment of children and adolescents, a personal contribution of 20 percent must be paid in advance. The health insurance company reimburses the own contribution after the end of the successfully completed treatment. If several children of a family are in treatment at the same time, the own contribution is reduced to ten percent for the second and each additional child.
