Teaser	A so-called weak adoption of a child carried out abroad can be converted into a so-called strong adoption by decision of the family court.
Volltext	Upon request, the family court can convert a so-called weak adoption into a so-called strong adoption.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Notarized application for conversion of adoption • foreign adoption certificate. Note: In most cases, foreign documents with over-certification are necessary: • by the competent foreign authority (apostille) or • Legalization by the German mission abroad.
Voraussetzungen	You have adopted a child abroad. The court pronounces the adoption with strong effect if: • this serves the best interests of the child, • the necessary consents to an acceptance with an effect terminating the parent-child relationship have been granted, and

Modul	Sachverhalt
	• do not conflict with the overriding interests of the husband, wife or children of the adoptee or adopted child
Kosten	• Notary fees • Legal expenses • the respective amount depends on the individual case
Verfahrensablauf	You must submit a notarized application for conversion to the competent local court. The court examines the application and also involves the locally competent youth welfare office and the central adoption office of the state youth welfare office during the proceedings. The court pronounces the adoption with strong effect if: • this serves the best interests of the child, • the necessary consents to an acceptance with an effect terminating the parent-child relationship have been granted, and • overriding interests of the husband, wife or children of the adoptee or adopted child. Your adopted child then has all the rights and obligations of a biological child. In addition, if they are not yet 18 years old at the time of the application, they will receive German citizenship if you or your husband or wife are German citizens.
Bearbeitungsdauer	At least 3 months due to the given procedure, in more complex procedures possibly longer
