Teaser	If you are a family member of an EU or EEA citizen and come from a third country, you will need a residence card for your further stay in Germany no later than three months after your entry.
Volltext	As a third-country national family member of a citizen of the European Union (EU) or a state of the European Economic Area (EEA: Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway), you have the right to move freely with your caregiver in the European Union, to enter and reside in any member state of the EU or EEA state if the requirements under EU law are met. This also includes the free choice of residence. You are a third-country national if you are not a citizen of an EU member state, the EEA or Switzerland. "Family members" means the following persons: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Spouses • Life partner • relatives in the direct descending line (e.g. children) of the EU/EEA citizen or spouse or partner who have not yet reached the age of 21 or who are dependent on them, and • Relatives in the direct ascending line (e.g. parents and grandparents) of the EU/EEA citizen or spouse or partner who are dependent on them. In the case of EU or EEA citizens who are students, the group of family members entitled to join them is limited to spouses and life partners as well as children who are dependent. During the first three months of your stay in Germany, your stay is subject to the condition that there is a family relationship with the caregiver entitled to freedom of movement, that you accompany this person and that you are in possession of a recognised or otherwise approved passport or passport substitute.

For a stay of more than three months, you need a residence card, which will be issued to you by the Foreigners' Registration Office ex officio and within six months.

The Foreigners' Registration Office checks whether the conditions for freedom of movement are met. Among other things, it depends on whether your caregiver is employed or not.

Until a decision has been made on the issuance of the residence card, your stay in Germany is considered lawful.

With the issuance of the residence card, the existence of the right of freedom of movement is established. The residence card is usually issued for five years, unless your caregiver's stay results in a shorter period.

If you have not yet reached the age of 18, the persons entitled to your personal custody must agree to your planned stay in Germany.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- Recognized and valid identity document (e.g. passport or passport substitute)
 - Visa, if it was required for entry
 - Up-to-date biometric photo in the passport (45 x 35 mm)
 - Proof of the existence of the family relationship with the caregiver (e.g. marriage or birth certificate)
 - Proof that the caregiver is exercising his or her right to freedom of movement (e.g. confirmation of registration, employment contract or assurance of employment, trade license)
 - In the case of minors: consent of all persons with custody to the planned stay (declaration of consent); if the parents with custody are unable to submit the application jointly for their child, a written power of attorney from the absent parent is required; if custody is granted to only one parent, the signature of that

In the case of reunification with a non-gainfully employed reference person, the Foreigners' Registration Office may also require:

- Proof of sufficient means of subsistence
- Proof of health insurance coverage (e.g. confirmation of health insurance coverage or insurance policy)

In the case of reunification with a caregiver during your studies, the Foreigners' Registration Office may also require:

- University admission or certificate of enrollment of the reference person
- Proof of sufficient means of subsistence
- Proof of health insurance coverage (e.g. confirmation of health insurance coverage or insurance policy)

Please note: This proof must also be provided for third-country nationals who join the caregiver.

The documents and information must always be submitted in German. In individual cases, the Foreigners' Registration Office may require less or more evidence.

Voraussetzungen

- You are not a citizen of an EU member state, the EEA or Switzerland.
- You are a family member of an EU or EEA citizen residing in Germany.
- You have a close family relationship with the EU or EEA citizen (you do not necessarily have to live together for this).
- You would like to stay in Germany for more than three months.

Registration Office should be correct and complete to the best of our knowledge and belief so that the request can be processed without major delays.

- Incorrect or incomplete information can slow down the procedure and be detrimental to the persons concerned. In the event of an emergency, incorrect or incomplete information that is not completed or corrected in time vis-à-vis the Foreigners' Registration Office may result in the revocation of residence rights already granted, a fine, imprisonment of up to three years or expulsion from the federal territory.

- If you have been legally resident in Germany with your caregiver for five years, you can apply for a permanent residence card.

- The residence card is not issued to nationals of Switzerland, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland. Other provisions apply to these persons (see "Further information").

- Due to the complexity of the right of residence and freedom of movement, this description is for information purposes only and is not legally binding.

Rechtsbehelf

- Objection to the decision of the Foreigners' Registration Office within one month of notification
- Bringing an action before the court named in the notice of opposition if the objection is not upheld
