Volltext	You can file a criminal complaint, whether you are injured, can witness a crime or are not involved. Rapid processing is encouraged by the selection of the federal state in which the event took place. You can file a complaint informally, by telephone, online and at the police station, either anonymously or by providing your contact details. The online advertisement is to be understood as an additional offer. In the case of criminal complaints, the focus is on the notification of a criminal fact. A distinction is made between different groups of offences. Please note that crimes from the following groups of offences can be reported online: theft/property crime, fraud, damage to property and hate speech on the Internet. Other crimes can be reported via the category "other criminal complaint". In order to promote the fastest possible processing, please select a suitable offense. If you file a complaint, you are a witness in the criminal proceedings. Notwithstanding your online complaint, it may be necessary to summon you to the relevant police station as part of the further processing of it, for example in order to be able to conduct a witness examination with you personally. e-mail with a transaction number and the contact details of the processing office.

The competent police department receives the complaint and examines it. If you file a complaint of a crime committed outside Germany or in another federal state, the prosecution authority will send the report to the competent authority.

Only if no investigative approaches are available will the investigation be discontinued by the public prosecutor's office. The chances of success differ depending on the type of crime. Basically, the more information you provide, the higher the chances that the police will find the perpetrator. Anyone who knowingly and falsely suspects a person commits a crime. The law provides for a fine or imprisonment of up to five years.

Bearbeitungsdauer

Upon receipt of the online advertisement, you will receive an e-mail confirmation with a transaction number. The processing time depends on various factors. It is not possible to limit the time.

Frist

A deadline is not to be met. However, you should pay attention to the respective limitation periods, because as a rule, criminal offenses usually become statute-barred after a certain period of time.

Hinweise

If you file a complaint, you are basically a witness in the criminal proceedings. It may be necessary to summon you to the relevant police station as part of the further processing of your complaint, for example in order to be able to conduct a witness examination with you personally.

Anyone who has knowledge of a criminal offence but does not report it can be liable to prosecution. There are no special formal requirements. Caution should be exercised if it is a suspected crime. Defamation and false suspicion are punishable by law, and the person who files the complaint must expect legal action against him. Crimes such as murder, robbery, war
