Teaser	If there have been changes to the approval of your transport company for animal transport, you must notify the competent authority. You can find out more here.
Volltext	The requirements of Regulation (EC) No. 1/2005 (EU Animal Welfare Transport Regulation) on the protection of animals during transport apply to the transportation of animals. According to Article 10 of the regulation, companies that transport animals over a distance of more than 65 kilometers must be licensed. In addition, all persons involved in the transportation of animals in these establishments must be in possession of a certificate of competence issued by the authorities. These requirements may also apply to the transportation of animals as part of an agricultural or part-time activity ("part-time farmers"). If there are any changes to your license (e.g. change of care staff, changes to the vehicle fleet), you must notify the competent authority.
