Volltext	If you want to run a zoo, you'll need permission from the conservation authority. In addition to the construction and operation of a zoo, the expansion and significant changes are also subject to approval. The nature conservation authority issues the permit on application for certain installations and certain operators and sets a maximum number for the animal population of each individual species. According to the Federal Nature Conservation Act (BNatSchG), zoos are facilities in which animals of wild species are kept for at least seven days a year in order to display them.
