Sachverhalt

doctor or midwife

This certificate is issued no earlier than seven weeks before the expected date of birth, i.e. one week before the start of the maternity leave period.

- Birth certificate for maternity assistance - the original if you are privately insured, or a copy stamped by the statutory health insurance fund if you are insured with your family. Send the birth certificate to the Federal Insurance Office for final processing of your application.

You will receive the birth certificate after the birth announcement at your city or municipal administration (registry office).

Voraussetzungen

- You are not a member of a statutory health insurance fund, but have family or private insurance.
- At the beginning of the six-week protection period before childbirth, you are or were in an employment relationship (including a marginal employment relationship) or a home-based employment relationship.
- You changed from a civil servant relationship to an employment relationship during the protection period (female civil servants should contact their employer).
- Your employment relationship was permissibly terminated by the employer during the pregnancy, i.e. with the consent of the competent authority under Land law (e.g. the State Labour Inspectorate).
- Opening of bankruptcy proceedings by the employer or rejection of the bankruptcy petition for lack of assets.

Caution You are not entitled to maternity benefit if the termination was made by you or the employment relationship ended in accordance with the contract (for example, in the case of a fixed-term employment relationship).
