Written application by post or fax

Send an informal letter to the competent office requesting the issue of the VAT identification number (USt-IdNr.). Your application must contain the following information:

- Your name and address
- Your competent tax office
- Your tax number under which you are registered for VAT purposes

You do not have a tax number yet?

If your competent tax office has not yet issued you with a tax number under which you are registered for VAT purposes, please contact them to apply for both numbers together.
