Voraussetzungen

If you yourself are an EU citizen or a citizen of the European Economic Area (Norway, Iceland and Liechtenstein) or Switzerland as a family member, you have a right to freedom of movement if certain conditions are met.

- A certificate as proof of your right to freedom of movement as a family member is not required. This does not apply to family members of Swiss nationals who apply for a residence permit - CH as proof of their right of residence.
- If you come as a family member neither from an EU member state nor from an EEA state or Switzerland, but from another state (so-called third country), then you are entitled to a derived right of residence.

Note: Family members entitled to freedom of movement who are not EU citizens are issued a residence card ex officio.

Kosten

Administration fees:

- EUR 28.80
- for persons who are not yet 24 years old: EUR 22.80

Verfahrensablauf

To obtain the residence permit, you should report to the competent office in person or in writing.

- If all the necessary requirements are met, you will be issued a residence card within six months, which is valid for five years. You have to collect this in person.
