Volltext	This programme, launched by the European Commission as part of the European Solidarity Corps, is designed to encourage young people to get involved in a social, environmental or cultural institution in another European country. It is a programme that focuses on intercultural learning and the shaping of Europe. The participants help to initiate projects that fulfil social needs and enrich these projects with their motivation. Volunteers receive educational support before, during and after their service. As a rule, an EVS lasts between two and twelve months. Shorter projects of two weeks or less are possible under certain conditions. Participation in an EVS project is free of charge for participants (only travel costs may be subsidised). This also includes pocket money, costs for accommodation and meals as well as insurance and a language course.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	As there are no uniform requirements, the necessary documents for an application must be obtained from the respective organisations.
Voraussetzungen	The EVS is aimed at all young people between the ages
