Teaser	If you want to build on your property or need the exact course of your property boundaries for other reasons, you can submit an application for boundary restoration. Your property may consist of one or more parcels of land. The course of the parcel boundaries is recorded in the property register. Boundary restorations are surveys to transfer a parcel boundary defined in the real estate cadastre to the local area.
Volltext	If you want to build on your property or need the exact course of your property boundaries for other reasons, you can submit an application for boundary restoration. Your property may consist of one or more parcels of land. The course of the parcel boundaries is recorded in the property register. Boundary restorations are surveys to transfer a parcel boundary defined in the real estate cadastre to the local area. During a cadastral survey, non-existent boundary markers can be attached (marked off) and existing boundary markers can be checked for their correct position. #### Contact point Please contact a surveyor of your choice with your questions _(see - > Competent authority)_. The Saxon State Ministry for Regional Development cannot provide you with any information on your enquiry.
