Note : The building experts supporting you will tell you which documents the lower building supervisory authority requires in detail so that it can assess the building project and process the application. The lower building supervisory authority will request any missing documents.

Voraussetzungen

Your project can be exempted from authorisation if:

- it is not a special construction (e.g. high-rise building)
- it is not an installation for which there is an obligation to carry out an environmental impact assessment
- it does not serve to create residential use units with a total gross floor area of more than 5,000 square metres within the observation distance of an operating area of a hazardous incident site (e.g. chemical plant with highly explosive substances) as defined by the Federal Immission Control Act
- it does not enable the simultaneous use of publicly accessible building facilities by more than 100 additional users within the distance of attention of an operating area of a hazardous incident site within the meaning of the Federal Immission Control Act
- it lies within the scope of a qualified or project-related development plan within the meaning of the German Building Code
- it does not contradict the provisions of the development plan
- the development is secured
- the city or municipality* does not declare within the statutory period (3 weeks from the confirmed date of receipt of the documents) that the simplified building authorisation procedure is to be carried out, or
- the city or municipality* does not apply for a provisional prohibition within the above-mentioned period
- the lower building supervisory authority does not prohibit the start of construction and demands that an authorisation procedure be carried out

Written application

Submit the documents for the licence exemption together with the prescribed form to the lower building supervisory authority. You can obtain the prescribed form here via Amt24 _\(- > Forms and other offers\)_.

The documents must be prepared by experts (authorised drafters). Architects and engineers who are entered in the list of those authorised to submit building plans of the Saxony Chamber of Engineers are entitled to submit building plans; entries from other federal states are also valid in the Free State of Saxony.

Examination of the documents and start of construction

- Once you have submitted the complete documents, you will receive a confirmation of receipt within five working days. If the documents are not complete, missing documents will be requested.
- The lower building supervisory authority must prohibit you from starting construction if the municipality requires a simplified building permit procedure or a provisional prohibition of the project. In addition, the lower building supervisory authority can prohibit the start of construction and demand that an authorisation procedure be carried out if you wish to erect a residential building within the distance of a hazardous incident site as defined by the Federal Immission Control Act.
- If no prohibition is issued, you may start the building project three weeks after the confirmed date of receipt of the complete documents by the building supervisory authority.

Show start of construction

At least one week before you start the building project or if you have interrupted the building project for a period of more than 3 months, you must notify the
