corresponding craft, in a related craft or a final examination in a recognised training occupation corresponding to the craft to be practised,

- has practised this profession for at least six years,
- of which a total of at least four years in a managerial position in the craft applied for and
- provides evidence of the necessary business, commercial and legal knowledge.

Proof can be provided in the form of job references, job descriptions or in another way. The documents should provide evidence of both the journeyman's activity and managerial activity carried out as well as the prescribed duration of this activity of six or four years.

A managerial position can be assumed if, as a journeyman, you have been given independent decision-making powers in a company or in significant parts of a company.

The required knowledge of business management, commercial and legal matters can either be derived from your previous work experience or can be demonstrated by your participation in training courses.

Kosten

Fee range up to EUR 500.00 (according to the fee schedule of the Chamber of Crafts)
