Volltext	If you or a close relative were born abroad, you can request retrospective certification of the birth in the German birth register (previously the German "Geburtenbuch") from the registry office in Germany. Re-registration is not mandatory – duly issued birth certificates from abroad are recognised in Germany. The retrospective entry into the German birth register can, however, be an advantage because the local registry office can then issue you with a German birth certificate, rendering any translations or certifications of the foreign document unnecessary.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Foreign birth certificate with translation; legalisation / apostille if applicable valid ID, passport or travel document birth certificates of the parents of the person to whom the entry relates if applicable: certificate of naturalisation / citizenship other documents may also have to be provided – ask the registry office about this in advance.
Voraussetzungen	Births can be re-registered for:
