Volltext	Money laundering is the process by which illegally obtained assets are smuggled into the legal economy and removed from the reach of law enforcement authorities. Money laundering finances organised crime and terrorism. It causes considerable economic damage and endangers fair economic competition. Professional groups such as notaries, real estate agents, art brokers, bookmakers as well as income tax assistance associations are exposed to the risk of being misused for money laundering purposes and also for financing terrorism. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Money laundering prevention is a special challenge. In the control of the aforementioned professional groups by the competent authorities, the law also relies on the disclosure of information by whistleblowers.</li> </ul> Concrete tips are important and can help to eliminate violations of money laundering prevention regulations. With your tips, you can help to uncover misconduct on the part of individuals and to contain or correct the negative consequences of this misconduct. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• You can effectively help prevent money laundering or terrorist financing with your tip-off.</li> <li>• When submitting a report, you are not obliged to provide any personal information. The report can also</li> </ul>

Sachverhalt

A standardised online whistleblowing system is available to you as a whistleblower about the potential or actual violation of the Money Laundering Act (GwG), which guarantees you absolute anonymity. The guarantee of your anonymity through this system is certified by independent bodies.

Technical tracing to you as the person providing the tip-off is impossible as long as you do not actively enter any data yourself that would allow conclusions to be drawn about your person.

You can submit your report in full via the online service of the Free State of Saxony (in cooperation with the Free and Hanseatic City of Hamburg): "Geldwäsche-Hinweis online (Sachsen)" (see -> Forms and other offers).

You can also submit a report by post, by e-mail (for example via an e-mail address set up at short notice with immediate deletion) or via legal representation.

- Financial companies (KWG, ZAG)
- Insurance companies

a standardised online reporting system is available to you as a person providing information on the potential or actual violation of the Money Laundering Act (GwG): "Geldwäsche-Hinweis online (BaFin)" (see -> Forms and further offers).

You can also report by post, by e-mail (e.g. via an e-mail address set up at short notice with immediate deletion) or via legal representation.

- Lawyers, legal advisers

The office of the Saxony Bar Association accepts your reports - also anonymously (for contact see -> Competent Office).

- Legal service providers

Your information is received by the office of the competent local court or the Saxony Regional Social
