Sachverhalt

Apply for the cancellation of the permit in writing

- Contact your competent mining authority and agree on the required application documents.
- Submit the application and all required documents to your competent mining authority by post or on record.

Further procedural steps

- The competent mining authority will examine your application and the documents submitted. If any documents are missing, the authority will contact you.
- You will receive a decision by post informing you that your permit has been cancelled. In addition, the notice will be delivered electronically to the respective mailbox (bundID or ELSTER company account) in advance and an info will be displayed in BergPass.
- The mining authority will announce the cancellation in the official publication gazette. Your permit expires to the extent that it is cancelled on the date of publication. From this date onwards, it is no longer possible to revoke the cancellation.

In addition, you will receive a notice of costs for fees to be paid.
