Volltext	The guardianship service is offered by the youth welfare office. At your request, it will support you in establishing paternity or asserting maintenance claims. You decide which area you need help with. Guardianship is a special form of legal representation for children and young people. This enables the youth welfare office to legally represent the child in the relevant proceedings to establish paternity or assert maintenance claims, thereby relieving you of some of the burden. This does not restrict your parental care. You can apply for guardianship for the unborn child. If you no longer need the guardianship, you can terminate it in whole or in part at the youth welfare office. The guardianship ends automatically if the legal requirements are no longer met. This is the case, for example, if <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • both parents have assumed joint custody and the child lives in the same household, • the child is of legal age, • you move abroad with the child or • the guardianship has fulfilled its purpose, for example if paternity has been established.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • identity card • Copy of the child's birth certificate • Proof of paternity, if applicable • if available: Maintenance certificates or decisions or judgements on maintenance obligations • If necessary, further documents may be requested by

Verfahrensablauf	Depending on the regulations of the respective youth welfare office, you can submit your application in writing or online (see -> Online application). Talk to the youth welfare office in advance. Arrange an appointment for this. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Log in to the service account. If you do not yet have a service account, set one up under "Register free service account". • Click on the button under Online application. • Fill in the data fields according to the instructions and upload the required documents. You can save the details temporarily at any time and complete them at a later date. You can find cached versions under "My online applications" in your service account. • Once all data fields have been completed, finalise the application. The data will be sent to the department responsible. • You will find confirmation of receipt in the inbox of your service account. You will receive a notification of incoming messages to your personal e-mail address. • If an application form is available, you can obtain this via Amt24 or via the authority's own website. If no form is available, you can submit an informal application. • Submit the signed application with the required supporting documents to the youth welfare office responsible. Electronic submission is possible. • The guardianship begins when the application is received by the youth welfare office. The Youth Welfare Office assigns the exercise of the guardianship to its employees. • When paternity is established, the guardian first contacts the alleged father. If paternity is not recognised, he or she applies to the responsible family court on behalf of the child to establish paternity. • When asserting maintenance claims for the child, the legal adviser asks the parent liable for maintenance to
