Volltext	If you were prevented from practicing your profession or a socially equivalent profession in the GDR due to political persecution, you can be professionally rehabilitated and receive compensation payments. The same applies if you were unable to complete your vocational training for the same reasons. Mothers who were prevented from bringing up their children due to unjust imprisonment are entitled to compensation under pension law. Under special circumstances, fathers can also claim this. The child-raising periods are taken into account in the pension history on application. Certificate If you meet the requirements for rehabilitation, you will receive a certificate in accordance with the Occupational Rehabilitation Act (BerRehaG) or for the recognition of child-raising periods. The certificates are used to apply for certain benefits:
