Teaser	Tax office can issue certificate for wage tax deduction if retrieval of electronic wage tax deduction features (ELStAM) is not possible due to incorrect reporting data.
Volltext	As a rule, your employer will deduct income tax for you on the basis of the electronic income tax deduction characteristics (ELStAM). In some cases, however, it is not possible to retrieve the ELStAM, e.g. because reporting data is incorrect. The responsible tax office will then issue you with a "certificate for wage tax deduction" on request, which can be used as a substitute by your employer as a basis for wage tax deduction (so-called substitute certificate). If your employer does not have such a certificate, they must deduct income tax according to tax class VI.
