Teaser	If one of your family members has died, you can apply for a death certificate at the relevant registry office.
Volltext	The death certificate is a document that certifies the death of a person. Every death must be reported to the registry office in whose jurisdiction the death occurred no later than the third working day following the death. You can have the death certificate issued as a family member at the registry office that recorded the death. Saarland has also made use of the option granted by the Civil Status Act to set up a central electronic civil status register at state level. This enables citizens throughout Saarland to obtain information from Saarland civil status registers or civil status certificates from all registry offices, provided that the civil status cases are recorded electronically. This has regularly been the case since 01.01.2009. You can obtain the death certificate in the following forms: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Death certificate (possibly with translation aid for use in EU countries) • Multilingual death certificate (for use abroad) • Certified printout from the register of deaths A certified printout from the death register shows all
