Teaser	Are you registered in the Register of Craftsmen with a craft requiring a license and would like to practice another craft requiring a license? Then you can apply for a license to practice another trade under certain conditions.
Volltext	You must be entered in the Register of Craftsmen if you want to operate a craft requiring a license on your own or if you want to work as a company manager. This also applies if <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • you want to carry out a significant part of a craft requiring a license independently • you want to carry out several trades requiring a license independently. In this case, you need to be entered in the register of craftsmen for each craft requiring a license As a rule, you must provide proof of a master craftsman's examination or equivalent relevant qualification for entry in the register of craftsmen. Persons who already practise a craft requiring a license and wish to expand their commercial activity to another craft requiring a license can apply for a license to practise. In this respect, proof of the necessary knowledge and skills is required. It is irrelevant on what basis the existing entry in the register of craftsmen was made. The respective owner/manager who meets the registration requirements for the previously registered craft requiring a license is entitled to apply. The authorization to practice may be granted subject to
