Sachverhalt

The registry office may request the submission of further documents if this is necessary.

All documents must be originals. For foreign-language documents, the registry office generally requires complete translations into German, prepared by a publicly appointed and sworn translator in Germany. Foreign documents often also require certification by the competent foreign authority. In such a case, the registry office will draw your attention to this.

Voraussetzungen

If the death did not occur in a hospital, retirement or nursing home or other institution, you are listed in the following order as a person

- who lived with the deceased in the same household,
- in whose home the death occurred, or
- who was present at the death or is aware of the death from their own knowledge, is obliged to report the death verbally or in writing.

You can also instruct a funeral home to make the notification.

Kosten

There are no fees for the notification of a death and the certification in the death register.

Verfahrensablauf

You or the funeral director you have commissioned will report the death to the relevant registry office.

The doctor issues a death certificate and usually hands it over to the mortician.

If you have commissioned the mortician to make the notification, the mortician will prepare a written notification of death with your assistance, including all family-related information, compile the documents required for the notification and hand them over to the registry office.

You must hand over all the necessary documents.
