Teaser	If you require proof of birth from the former German territories or from the consular and colonial registers, you can apply for a birth certificate. You can obtain this from the registry office I in Berlin.
Volltext	With a birth certificate, you can prove the birth of a person, their first and last names and the details of their parents. You can have a birth certificate issued on the basis of an existing birth register. If the place of birth is outside of the Federal Republic of Germany, the birth may be registered at Standesamt I in Berlin.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	To apply for a birth certificate, you will need • Your identity card or passport • if you are applying through a representative: written power of attorney from the authorized person, their

Voraussetzungen	There is an entry in a German birth register on the basis of which you can apply for a birth certificate to be issued. Civil status certificates contain personal data, so their issue is subject to data protection restrictions. • Authorized applicants (minimum age: 16 years): • the person to whom the entry relates and their • Spouse or spouse, • civil partners (within the meaning of the Civil Partnership Act), • ancestors and descendants (such as parents or grandparents as well as children and grandchildren), • Siblings, if they can credibly demonstrate a legitimate interest. • Other persons, including close relatives such as aunts and uncles, only receive a birth certificate if they can credibly demonstrate a legal interest (examples: Letter from the probate court, court judgment or enforceable title).
Kosten	Fees are charged for issuing a birth certificate in accordance with Berlin state law.
Verfahrensablauf	• In principle, a certificate can also be applied for in analog form, but we strongly recommend using the online application to speed up the processing procedure. • In addition to yourself, a person you trust may also order the certificate on your behalf. A written power of attorney is required for this. • You will receive a notification of fees when the certificate is sent to you.
