Teaser	If there are changes in a feed company, such as the commencement of new or additional activities, you must report these.
Volltext	If changes have occurred since the registration of a feed company, these must be reported immediately to the competent authority. This regulation applies, among other things, to changes in the activities of the company's operating sites. Further steps are required for changes that require approval. If the changes comply with the law, the company's entry in the list of registered feed companies is updated.
