| Teaser | If you are between 16 and 18 years old and would like to experience falconry accompanied by an experienced falconer, you will need a valid youth falconry license. |
| Volltext | Issuing, reissuing and re-issuing The issue of a youth falconry hunting license is possible for persons between the ages of 16 and 18 and entitles them to go falconry hunting accompanied by an experienced person who has been appointed in writing by their legal guardian. The youth falconry hunting license is specially designed to give young people the opportunity to gain experience in hunting. Party hunts are not permitted with a youth falconry hunting license. Comprehensive regulations and safety precautions apply to ensure safety during the hunt. The same age requirements and accompanying regulations are required for the re-issue of a youth falconry hunting license as for the initial issue. If the youth falconry hunting license has previously been revoked for reasons of non-compliance with regulations, a reassessment of suitability and reliability must be carried out. If there are any factual changes in the law, the existing permit must be amended. The reissue of a youth falconry hunting license is based on an assessment of personal qualifications and previous hunting experience. Additional certificates of participation in further education or training courses may have to be obtained before the license is reissued. The competent hunting authority reserves the right to | re-examine the fulfillment of all statutory criteria before reissuing the youth falconry hunting license.

Daily and annual hunting license

The youth falconry hunting license is limited in time and can be applied for daily or annual periods, depending on individual hunting needs and residence regulations. The daily youth falconry hunting license is valid for 14 consecutive days and can be extended twice during the hunting year.

Amendment

It may be necessary to amend the youth falconry hunting license if the accompanying person changes or additional safety precautions have to be taken. If the legal landscape changes or the conditions for the escort are redefined, the youth hunting license must be updated accordingly. The application for a change should be made in good time to the relevant hunting authority and all necessary forms and accompanying documents must be submitted.

Revocation/withdrawal

A youth falconry hunting license is revoked or withdrawn if the accompanying conditions in accordance with the guidelines are no longer fulfilled or if there are safety concerns. This may also be the case if the young person violates the hunting laws or the insurance is no longer valid. The competent hunting authority checks all relevant documents and reserves the right to take measures to ensure legal compliance.

Entry of a hunting area in the youth falconry hunting license

In the case of a youth falconry hunting license, the entry of the authorized hunting area is required in order to clearly define where accompanied hunting is permitted. This entry ensures that the hunting activities are carried out in accordance with the regulations and in the correct company. The

Hinweise

You will only receive the falconry license for the period for which you have taken out the insurance. The insurance company can also send the proof directly to the competent authority electronically.

The falconry hunting license alone does not entitle you to actually hunt. In Germany, the right to hunt belongs to landowners, who (if they own sufficient land and hold a valid hunting license) may exercise it on their own land or must join local hunting associations of landowners, who then usually lease the right to hunt to hunters.

The falconry hunting license must be carried when hunting with falconry

The falconry hunting license is valid throughout Germany.

The hunting levy is earmarked for:

- Measures for the conservation and improvement of wildlife habitats
- wildlife biology research projects, studies of game habitats (biotopes) and game management
- Measures and facilities for the further training of hunters
- Measures to improve animal welfare in hunting, in particular the promotion of tracking with dogs and the training of dogs for hunting
- Measures for the prevention and control of diseases of game that are transmissible to humans or animals kept in the care of humans

Special features

Before issuing a falconry license for the first time, the competent hunting authority must obtain an extract from the Federal Central Register, which can take up to 4 weeks. Therefore, please contact your hunting authority during the current or after passing the hunting examination including the falconry examination
