Teaser	Would you like to occasionally offer goods for immediate sale at events such as trade fairs, exhibitions, public festivals or on special occasions? If so, you need a permit from the competent authority and do not require a traveling trade card.
Volltext	You require a permit if you wish to offer goods for immediate sale at a trade fair or exhibition, a public festival (e.g. community festival, shooting festival, etc.) or as part of another special event. You must apply for the permit from the competent authority. If you are already in possession of a traveling trade license that entitles you to offer certain or all goods for sale, this is sufficient. In this case, you no longer require an additional permit to sell at the aforementioned events. This also applies if you are exempt from a traveling trade license for other reasons (§ 55a para. 1 no. 2-10 of the Trade Regulation Act (GewO) and § 55b para. 1 of the Trade Regulation Act (GewO). After applying for a permit, the competent authority will decide whether to approve your application to offer the goods for sale. issues the permit for a specific location and for a specific event, i.e. for a limited period of time. The permit is not transferable. It does not replace any other permits and approvals that may have to be obtained from other authorities (e.g. permits under road or traffic law - special use permit). The sale of the goods you wish to offer must not be prohibited in the traveling trade.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- Extract from the commercial register (for legal entities)
- Memorandum and articles of association (for legal entities)
- Copy of identity card or passport with registration certificate, or presentation on site
- Details of the location and type of sales stand as well as the product range

Voraussetzungen

You wish to offer goods (not services) for sale at a specific event or on a specific occasion. The goods you wish to offer for sale (hand selling) must not be prohibited in the itinerant trade. For example, precious metals, precious stones and alcohol are prohibited - with certain exceptions from Section 56 (1) No. 2 a of the Trade Regulation Act (GewO).

You offer the goods at the event itself, or at least on the fringes of the event in question. There must therefore be a temporal and spatial connection to the event (e.g. on the forecourt or access roads).

Kosten

The fees for a permit to offer goods for sale occasionally at trade fairs, exhibitions, etc. (§ 55a Para. 1 No. 1 GewO) are currently between 5.10 and 51 euros.

You will receive a notification of fees.

The administrative fees are set in accordance with the Act on the Levying of Administrative and User Fees in the Saarland (SaarlGebG) in conjunction with the General Fee Schedule for the Saarland (GebVerz) (here: Section 601.9).

In the event of rejection:

Sachverhalt

If an application to carry out an official act is withdrawn before it is completed, up to 75 percent of the full fee is payable, depending on the expenses already incurred (Section 9 (2) SaarlGebG).

Verfahrensablauf

1. You submit the application.
2. After your application has been reviewed, you will receive a fee notice.
3. Once you have paid the fee, the notification will be sent to you.

Bearbeitungsdauer
Frist

Permission must be granted before the date of the event, so it is necessary to apply in good time.

- Object: Occasional sale of goods at trade fairs, exhibitions, public festivals and on special occasions; Sufficient if the sale takes place in a spatial connection with the trade fair, exhibition, festival or event (e.g. on the forecourt or on an access road); Exclusion of goods that are primarily the subject of the trade fair or exhibition (sale only on the occasion of the trade fair/exhibition); Only the immediate sale of goods is covered, not the mere acceptance of orders; The permit makes an itinerant trade license unnecessary; No permit required if an itinerant trade license is available that entitles the holder to offer for sale certain or all goods; Other permits (e.g. under road or traffic law) are not replaced
- If the following goods are to be offered for sale at events of this type, no permit is required (as a permit or exemption already exists on another basis): home-grown products from agriculture and forestry, vegetable growing, fruit growing and horticulture,
