consumed on the premises, or
2. in amusement arcades or similar businesses, or
3. in betting offices of licensed bookmakers (according to § 2 RennwLottG).

You may not, for example, set up a gaming machine at public festivals, fairs, in drinking establishments, ice cream bars or in pubs and restaurants located on sports grounds, in sports halls, dance schools, bathing establishments or youth hostels.

As a rule, a site inspection is carried out, especially if equipment is to be set up in the premises for the first time or if the premises have changed.

Note: If you do not set up the play equipment yourself, but have it set up in your business, you may only allow it to be set up if you

- comply with the quantity restrictions,
- you have ensured that the person setting up the play equipment has a permit to do so and
- a type approval from the Physikalische-Technische Bundesanstalt is available for the play equipment
