	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Personal school supplies For children under the age of 7 or if the child attends a secondary school after the 10th school year, you must submit a school certificate. • School transport The costs are not covered in full by third parties, such as the school authorities. If only part of the travel costs are covered by third parties, only the personal contribution can be reimbursed. The distance between your place of residence and your school or institution is greater than the minimum distance stipulated by law. Under certain circumstances, the nearest institution may also have a special focus, for example a sports or language profile, or it may be a Waldorf school. • Extracurricular learning support The school must confirm that you need additional learning support. If there are school offers, you must use them as a priority. It does not matter whether your promotion is at risk. The learning support is offered by a suitable provider or a suitable private person. • Communal lunchtime meals You or your child attend a school, a daycare center, a daycare facility or an after-school care center. Lunch is provided by the facility or is agreed in a cooperation agreement with the facility (e.g. between the school and after-school care center). The food is served and eaten communally.
