Teaser	If you would like to take the falconry examination, you must apply for admission to the falconry examination.
Volltext	You need a falconry license to hunt with raptors or falcons. To obtain this, you must first pass a falconry examination. The application for admission to the falconry examination must be submitted to the competent hunting authority in your place of residence at least five weeks before the start of the examination. The application must usually include documents such as a police clearance certificate and proof of payment of the examination fee. The examination covers specific knowledge about the keeping, care and removal of birds of prey as well as raptor protection and hunting. Upon successful completion, you will receive the falconry hunting license, which allows you to hunt throughout Germany.
