Teaser	If you would like to enroll your child who will not turn six until after June 30 of the current year and who has the required level of mental and physical development, you can apply for this at the elementary school in your school district.
Volltext	Would you like your child to start school early even though he or she will not turn six until after the school enrollment deadline on June 30? Then you can apply for early enrollment at your elementary school in the school district. In Schleswig-Holstein, every child who has reached the age of six by June 30th is required to attend school. All children who turn six on or after July 1st are not required to attend school until the following calendar year. The school management decides on the admission of the child after discussions with the parents. A school doctor's or school psychologist's report may also be requested. Admission is possible if it can be expected that the child will work successfully at school. in school early.

- Registration or the application for early enrollment must be submitted to the responsible elementary school.
- Even if the child is to be enrolled at a different elementary school (free choice of school), parents/guardians must first register with the elementary school responsible in the school catchment area
- The child must attend the school medical examination.
- An appointment for this can be arranged by the elementary school or must be requested from the responsible health authority.
- The decision as to whether the child can actually start school early is made by the school management.
- The child is required to attend school upon admission.
- The parents/guardians must register the child together if they have joint custody of the child.
- Responsible authority: Primary school in the school catchment area
