Verfahrensablauf

Application

You submit an application for a licence to practise as a pharmacist to the competent authority. You can hand in the application with the documents to the competent body or send it by post. Do not send originals. Sometimes you can send the application electronically. The competent body will inform you. The competent body will then check whether your training corresponds to the German training and whether all other requirements are met. Approbation can only be granted if your training from a third country is equivalent to the German training.

Examination of equivalence

The competent body compares your professional qualification from abroad with the German professional qualification. The competent body checks whether your professional qualification is equivalent. The professional qualification is equivalent if there are no significant differences between your foreign professional qualification and the German professional qualification.

Possible results of the examination

If your professional qualification is equivalent, your foreign professional qualification will be recognised. The authorities can confirm the result to you in writing. You still have to meet the other requirements and prove your language skills. Then you will be granted your licence to practise as a pharmacist.

Are there any significant differences between your professional qualification and the German professional qualification? Perhaps you can compensate for the differences through your professional practice, other knowledge or skills (lifelong learning). You have to prove the professional practice. Knowledge and skills must be certified by an authority of the state in which you acquired the knowledge or skills.

However, it may be that the substantial differences cannot be compensated for by this knowledge. The competent authority will tell you what the substantial differences are and why you cannot make up the substantial differences through your professional experience.

The decision of the competent body will also state the level of your training and the level required in Germany. You are then not allowed to work as a pharmacist in Germany.

Knowledge examination

If your professional qualification is not equivalent and you cannot compensate for the differences, you can take a knowledge examination. The knowledge examination is based on the final examination as a pharmacist in Germany. The knowledge examination is an oral examination.

If you pass the knowledge examination and meet all other requirements, you will receive your license to practice as a pharmacist.

Bearbeitungsdauer

4 Monat(e)

The competent body will confirm that your application and documents have arrived after a maximum of one month. The competent body will inform you if any documents are missing. If the documents are complete, the procedure will take a maximum of 4 months.

Frist

None. Sometimes documents are still missing from the procedure. The competent office will then inform you by when you have to submit the documents. This may prolong the procedure.

Professional permit

With the so-called professional permit you can work for a limited period of time without a license to practice medicine. You must meet the following requirements for a professional permit:

- Proof of your professional qualification
- Health suitability
- Personal suitability
- German language skills: You must provide evidence of language skills at level B2 and pass a professional language test at level C1.

You can apply for a professional permit at the competent office.

Letter of equivalence

In the approval procedure, the equivalence of your training is examined (recognition procedure). You can apply for a separate decision on the result of the examination.

Procedure for late repatriates

As a late repatriate, you can either go through the recognition procedure according to the laws mentioned here or according to the Federal Expellees Act. You can decide this yourself. The competent office
