investment advisor or real estate loan broker is regulated in Germany.
 This means that you need a trade license to work in these professions. You need a certificate of competence for the license.

The certificate of competence is the professional qualification you need for the relevant work.

You can also provide proof of expertise with a professional qualification from abroad. To do this, you must have your professional qualification recognized. Professional qualifications can be Certificates of competence or training certificates.

If you would like to work permanently and independently in the professions mentioned, you will also need a permit. With a permit, you can operate these professions permanently and independently as a business. You must meet several requirements for the permit. One important requirement is proof of expertise. You apply for the permit in a different procedure.
