Teaser	A driving ban can be issued as part of a misdemeanor procedure; a driving license is revoked by court order.
Volltext	Driving ban and withdrawal of driving license have different meanings: The imposition of a driving ban of between one and three months is considered in the course of misdemeanor proceedings in accordance with Section 25 of the Road Traffic Act (StVG). The ban period begins when the decision becomes legally binding or as soon as the driver's license is taken into official custody. After the driving ban has expired, the driver's license is automatically returned/returned. When the driving license is revoked by the court or the driving license authority in accordance with Section 3 of the Road Traffic Act (StVG), the driving license becomes invalid. The right to drive vehicles requiring a driving license no longer applies. The driving license must be reapplied for (new issue/reissue).
