Teaser	In Schleswig-Holstein, anyone who is a member of a religious community and is resident in Schleswig-Holstein is liable for church tax.
Volltext	According to the Church Tax Act of the state of Schleswig-Holstein, all members of a Protestant state church, the Roman Catholic Church, the Jewish community in Hamburg and the Old Catholic Church in Schleswig-Holstein who are resident in Schleswig-Holstein are liable to pay church tax. Start of church tax liability: The obligation to pay church tax begins on the first day of the month following the start of membership and the establishment of residence in Schleswig-Holstein. Termination of church tax liability: Membership of the religious community is terminated by death or resignation from the church. If you wish to leave the religious community, you must declare this to the responsible office. At the end of the day on which the resignation is declared, all rights and obligations based on personal membership of the religious community cease to apply under state law. The end of the obligation to pay church tax is regulated by the religious communities themselves.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Identity card or passport or foreign identity card with a registration certificate that is not older than six months, • if available: Certificate of baptism, • for married persons and persons living in a civil partnership: marriage certificate or civil partnership certificate.
