Volltext	Anyone wishing to operate a restaurant business requiring a permit through a deputy requires a deputy permit. This is issued to the holder of the restaurant license for a specific deputy and can be limited in time. The business operator requires a deputy permit for each person who is to operate the business as a deputy. The exercise of the trade by the deputy may also be permitted on a revocable basis until the permit is issued. If the trade is no longer operated by the deputy, the licensing authority must be notified immediately. The deputy permit can only be issued if the restaurant permit has already been issued or is issued at the same time. A provisional restaurant permit, on the other hand, does not yet form the basis for a deputy permit. In these cases, a provisional replacement permit can be applied for.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	As the holder of the restaurant license: Informal written application.
