Volltext	If you wish to act as administrator in insolvency proceedings for which self-administration has been ordered, you must be appointed by the competent insolvency court. A natural person who is suitable for the individual case, in particular one who is knowledgeable in business and independent of the creditors and the debtor, must be appointed as administrator and selected from among all persons willing to take on the role of administrator. You will receive a certificate of your appointment. Upon termination of your office, you must return the certificate to the insolvency court.

Hinweise	A natural person suitable for the individual case must be appointed as the insolvency administrator. If self-administration is ordered, an administrator is appointed instead of the insolvency administrator. Like the insolvency administrator, the administrator is liable to pay compensation to all parties involved in the insolvency proceedings if he culpably breaches the
