As an adopted person, you can inspect your placement file to obtain information about your origins and life story. This only applies if it does not conflict with and outweigh the interests of other parties concerned, especially the birth parents.

Volltext

As an adopted person, you can inspect your placement file to obtain information about your origins and life story. This only applies if it does not conflict with and outweigh the interests of other parties concerned, especially the birth parents.

You will be supported by a specialist from the adoption placement centre.

You can also inspect your files at the registry office.

The records and documents relating to each placement

Kosten	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Information from the adoption agency: free of charge</li> <li>• Information or inspection of a civil status register: EUR 10.00</li> <li>• Information or inspection of the collective file of the registry office: EUR 20.00</li> </ul>
Verfahrensablauf	If you would like information about your origins, you must contact the adoption agency that placed you. The specialists will allow you to inspect the files and provide information about your origins and general living circumstances, such as the birth parents' reasons for releasing you. As a rule, the file also contains reports on your development that the adoption placement centre has prepared as part of the aftercare. Please note: The right to inspect the file is restricted if this conflicts with the overriding personal interests of the persons involved. In this case, sensitive areas are usually covered. If you wish, the specialised staff will try to establish contact with your biological parents. If your family of origin would also like to contact you, they will usually arrange this. The adoption placement centre also endeavours to find an appropriate individual solution for the birth parents and siblings from the family of origin. There is no right to inspect the file. To inspect the civil status register, we recommend that you make an appointment to appear in person at the registry office. You can also request information in writing, by fax or - if the municipality in question offers this - online.
