- Especially suitable for children of school age and older who show behavioural problems or developmental delays. The children and adolescents are supported with social and curative education measures.
- Partial inpatient offer. This means that the child receives the same therapeutic and educational services as in inpatient care (e.g. in a home or foster family), Educational services that he or she does not receive in the family, and school support and is cared for in the day group during the week after school, but can otherwise remain in the family and thus in his or her familiar environment.
- Group size: 8-10 children
- The Youth Welfare Office involves the parents intensively (e.g. through targeted counselling sessions, parents' evenings, parents' leisure time or parent-child meetings).
