Sachverhalt

If you employ a pregnant or breastfeeding woman aged 18 or over, this is considered overtime if she works

- over 8.5 hours a day
- over 90 hours in a double week (including Sundays)
- the contractually agreed weekly working hours exceed the monthly average

works more than the monthly average.

If you employ a pregnant or breastfeeding woman under the age of 18, this is considered overtime if she:

- over 8 hours a day
- over 80 hours in a double week (including Sundays)
- the contractually agreed weekly working hours exceed the monthly average

works more than the monthly average.

Authorisation for overtime, night work, continuous or piecework does not replace the basic requirement to notify the supervisory authority that an employee is pregnant. This notification must be made as soon as the employer has been informed of the pregnancy.
