Verfahrensablauf	You can apply for the relevant residence title (visa, residence permit) using the appropriate form. Application forms for visa applications can be obtained free of charge from the relevant diplomatic mission or consular post in the usual local language. They are also available for download, depending on the services offered by the respective diplomatic mission abroad. For other residence permits, you can obtain the necessary forms from the foreigners authority in the place where you registered your place of residence after entering Germany. You can find details on the respective procedures in the procedure descriptions listed above. You submit the visa application in person. If necessary, the diplomatic mission abroad will obtain the approval of the foreigners authority at your future place of residence in Germany. After approval, the diplomatic mission can issue the visa authorising entry and temporary residence.
Bearbeitungsdauer	The time from the application to the issuing of the visa can vary. Please allow several months for processing.
Frist	Please note that you are obliged to submit an application for a residence permit before your visa expires.
