Sachverhalt

Important:

Please submit your educational certificates (for school recognition) and their official translations as officially certified copies. Copies are officially certified if an original stamp certifies that the copy corresponds to the original. Other documents in the original language can be submitted in the original language and in an official translation as a simple copy, not as an officially certified copy. As a rule, documents in English or French do not need to be translated.

Please note: Official translations may only be carried out by sworn translators.
