or a statutory maintenance obligation by leaving the country.

- Your name has changed, for example, following a marriage.

Kosten

The fees for a passport for people aged 24 and over have increased as of 1 January 2024.

If you are under 24 years old, the fee is

- for a passport: EUR 37.50
- for a passport using the express procedure: EUR 69.50

From the age of 24, the fee is

- for a passport: EUR 70.00
- for an express passport: EUR 102.00

The passport has 32 pages. You can also apply for a passport with 48 pages. In this case, you will have to pay a surcharge of EUR 22.

The surcharge is EUR 32 for a passport using the express procedure.

The fee (without surcharges) is doubled if

- the passport has to be issued outside official office hours or
- the application is not submitted to the local passport authority (municipality of the main residence).

If you apply for a passport at a German embassy or consular mission, e.g. if you lose your passport, you will have to pay a surcharge of 31 euros.

Verfahrensablauf

- You must apply for your passport in person and submit the required documents.
- The application will be recorded on site at the passport office. You must provide a formally valid signature and complete the declaration of German citizenship.
- The submission of fingerprints (flat print of the left and right index finger) is required by law for the application. Note: If an index finger is missing, the quality of the fingerprint is insufficient or the fingertip is damaged, another fingerprint will be taken instead. Fingerprints will only not be taken if this is impossible for permanent medical reasons.

- After production, the passport is sent to the passport authority by the passport producer, Bundesdruckerei GmbH. Depending on the municipality, you will be notified as soon as you can collect your passport. The notification information from the passport authority usually also contains a form for authorisation to collect your passport. This allows you to collect your passport yourself or have it collected by an authorised person. The authorised person must identify themselves to the passport authority beforehand and present the authorisation form.
- You must hand in your old passport when you receive your new passport. If you wish, you can take your cancelled old passport back with you as a souvenir.

Bearbeitungsdauer

It can take up to eight weeks from the date of application before you can collect your passport from the passport office. It is recommended that you apply for your passport in good time before travelling. If you need your passport more quickly, you can also apply for it using the express procedure. A surcharge is added to the fee for this. If the express application is received on time, your passport will usually be ready for collection from the passport office on the following third working day (Monday to Friday, excluding public holidays).

Frist

Period of validity The period of validity depends on your age: • under 24 years of age: Passport is valid for six years • from the age of 24: Passport is valid for ten years It is not possible to extend the period of validity of the passport.
