Teaser	The real estate map shows all parcels of land and buildings of significance under real estate law with their spatial boundaries to scale. You can request an extract from the real estate map in the geoshop of the relevant land registry office.
Volltext	You can apply for an extract from the property map. The real estate map is the representative part of the cadastral record kept in the Official Real Estate Cadastre Information System (ALKIS). In the real estate map, all parcels of land and buildings of significance under real estate law are shown in color with their spatial boundaries to scale. The real estate map also contains additional information, such as parcel numbers, usage details, house numbers and location designations. If you require graphic evidence of your property or building for a building project or for mortgage lending purposes, you can apply for a corresponding copy of the property map. The extract from the real estate map can also be issued with a stored aerial photograph (digital orthophoto) or with the land valuation data. https://www.geoportal-mv.de/
