Volltext	Special living conditions exist, for example, in the absence of housing, unsecured economic livelihood, violent living conditions or comparable disadvantageous circumstances. Social difficulties exist if living in the community is significantly restricted by exclusionary behavior. The assistance includes all necessary measures to eliminate the particular social difficulties that stand in the way of integration into society. These measures include in particular: • Counseling and personal assistance, • Assistance in maintaining and obtaining a dwelling, • assistance in coping with everyday life. The benefit is provided without proof of income and assets, insofar as services are required in the individual case.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	At least: • Identity card or passport (or other documents that can identify the person beyond doubt). The competent social welfare institution will inform
