Volltext	If the rear license plate is partially or completely covered by a load carrier or load being carried (e.g. bicycle carrier), the license plate must be repeated on the vehicle or load carrier. It is not necessary to stamp the third license plate. In the case of vehicles on which light carriers are permitted in accordance with Section 49a (9) of the Road Traffic Licensing Regulations, the rear license plate may be attached to the light carrier. Attachments as interchangeable accessories for motor vehicles and trailers do not need to carry license plates. If the vehicle's license plates are covered, it is recommended that repeating license plates be affixed. The same applies to attached agricultural and forestry implements.
