Working as a midwife or maternity nurse is regulated in Germany. This means that in order to work as a midwife or maternity nurse in Germany, you need a state license. With this permit, you can use the professional title "midwife" or "maternity nurse" and work in the profession.

If you have a professional qualification from a so-called third country, you can also obtain a state permit from the competent body (an authority) in Germany. Third countries are all countries that do not belong to the European Union (EU), the European Economic Area (EEA) or Switzerland.

In order to obtain the permit, you must have your foreign professional qualification recognized.

In the recognition procedure, the competent authority compares your professional qualification from abroad with the German professional qualification and checks the equivalence. The equivalence of the professional qualification is an important prerequisite for the granting of a state license.

In addition to the equivalence of the professional qualification, you must also meet other requirements for the permit to be issued. Further requirements are, for example, sufficient German language skills and health suitability.

If your professional qualification originates from the EU, the EEA or Switzerland, other regulations apply.

You can also apply for the procedure from abroad.

Verfahrensablauf

Examination of equivalence

You submit an application to the competent authority

Modul

for permission to use the professional title "midwife" or "maternity nurse". The competent authority will then check whether you meet all the requirements. An important requirement is the professional qualification. The competent authority will compare your professional qualification from abroad with the German professional qualification as a midwife or maternity nurse. The competent authority will check whether your professional qualification is equivalent. The professional qualification is equivalent if there are no significant differences between your foreign professional qualification and the German professional qualification.

Possible results of the examination

If your professional qualification is equivalent, your foreign professional qualification will be recognized. The authority can confirm the result in writing. You must still meet the other requirements and provide proof of your language skills. You will then receive permission to use the professional title of "midwife" or "maternity nurse".

If the competent authority identifies significant differences, you can compensate for the differences through your professional practice and other knowledge and skills (lifelong learning). You must provide evidence of your professional experience. Knowledge and skills must be certified by an authority in your country of origin.

However, this knowledge may not be sufficient. You will then not be able to compensate for the major differences. Your foreign professional qualification will then not be recognized.

However, the competent authority will tell you the main differences and why you cannot compensate for the main differences through your professional practice. You will then not be allowed to work as a midwife or maternity nurse. However, the competent authority will offer you the opportunity to complete an adaptation period or take a knowledge test as a compensatory measure. If you successfully complete this measure, you will be allowed to work in the profession.

Adaptation course or knowledge test

If your professional qualification is not equivalent, you can choose between a knowledge test and an adaptation period of up to three years. The knowledge examination tests your knowledge in certain subjects and areas. These subjects and the exact course of the examination are regulated by law. The knowledge test has an oral part and a practical part. If you complete the adaptation period or pass the knowledge test (and meet all other requirements), you will receive permission to use the professional title of "midwife" or "maternity nurse".

None. Sometimes documents are still missing from the procedure. The responsible office will then inform you by when you must submit the documents.
