- Diversification of production into products not previously manufactured there,
- fundamental change to the overall production process or
- acquisition of assets directly linked to an establishment, provided that the establishment has been closed or would have been closed without this acquisition and provided that the assets are acquired by an investor unrelated to the seller. In the case of small companies that are taken over by family members of original owners or by former employees, the requirement that the assets must be acquired from third parties unrelated to the seller does not apply.

The following initial investment projects of large companies in a new economic activity can be supported:

- Investment in assets to establish a new permanent establishment or to diversify the activity of a permanent establishment, provided that the new activity is not the same or similar to the activity previously carried out in the permanent establishment, or
- Acquisition of the assets of a permanent establishment that has been closed or would have been closed without this acquisition and which is acquired by an investor unrelated to the seller, provided that the new activity to be carried out with the acquired assets is not the same or a similar activity to the activity carried out in the permanent establishment prior to the acquisition.

Who is eligible?

Companies in the commercial sector that carry out eligible investment projects in Mecklenburg-Vorpommern are eligible to apply. In particular, projects with business objects according to the classification of economic sectors (WZ 2008) as listed in the positive list of the GRW coordination

- Medium-sized companies
 - Basic funding rate : 10%
 - Maximum funding rate: 20%

- Large companies
 - Basic funding rate: -
 - Maximum funding rate: 10%

The EU definition of SMEs applies to small and medium-sized enterprises. An increase in the basic funding rate of up to 10 percentage points can be granted up to the maximum funding rate permitted under state aid law if the following conditions are met:

- Company is bound by a collective agreement within the meaning of the Collective Agreement Act.
- The applicable statutory minimum wage is exceeded by at least 50 or 100 percent for at least 75 percent of the workforce.
- Establishment/expansion in particularly structurally weak regions,
- Projects that are particularly innovative and associated with high R&D potential,
- Efforts by the company to reconcile work and private life or
- the company's efforts in environmental management.

Investment projects by large companies are funded on a case-by-case basis if there are particular structural effects. The Ministry of Economic Affairs, Infrastructure, Tourism and Labor may decide on a
