Teaser	If you would like to establish an inclusive business, you can receive funding from the Mecklenburg-Vorpommern State Office for Health and Social Affairs - Integration Office under certain conditions.
Volltext	Inclusion companies are companies that are set up for the long term. They offer severely disabled people employment and work-related support and, where necessary, also vocational training measures. In particular, severely disabled people with mental or psychological disabilities or with severe physical, sensory or multiple disabilities are to be integrated into the primary labor market in this way. Funding is available for the costs of equipment, expansion, modernization, business start-up consulting and special expenses of inclusive businesses. The type and amount of funding is determined by the circumstances of the individual case. As a rule, an own contribution of 30 percent is taken as a basis. The benefits per workplace for an employee from the target group amount to up to 30,000 euros and, with regard to the total investment, up to 400,000 euros per inclusive company.
