Teaser	These regulations do not apply to all dogs to the same extent; for example, there are exceptions for service dogs, guide dogs for the blind and disabled as well as hunting and herding dogs.
Volltext	The provisions of the Dog Owners Ordinance do not apply to all dogs to the same extent: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The ordinance does not apply to guide dogs for the blind, assistance dogs for the disabled, dogs of the rescue service and civil protection and service dogs kept by legal entities under public law or by foreign armed forces. • Within the scope of their respective purpose, hunting and herding dogs may be allowed to run free outside the pacified property without supervision. Furthermore, within the scope of their respective intended purpose, they may also be led outside the pacified property without a leash and muzzle if they are dangerous dogs within the meaning of the ordinance. Within the scope of their respective purpose, a person may also lead several of these dogs. • The local regulatory authority may permit further exceptions on request if it is ensured that people, animals or property are not endangered. • Dog owners and dog handlers who are only staying in Mecklenburg-Vorpommern temporarily (e.g. on vacation) are exempt from the obligation to obtain a permit to breed, keep and handle dangerous dogs. If they are staying for more than one month, they must notify the local regulatory authority of the presence of
