Volltext	Recognition of a specialty or additional designation must be applied for at the State Chamber of Veterinary Surgeons after completion of the prescribed further training. The application for recognition must be accompanied by all certificates issued during the further training and the evidence required for the respective further training course. The State Chamber of Veterinary Surgeons will check the application and the supporting documents for completeness and inform the applicant of the result. Within a reasonable period of time, the Chamber will decide whether the certificates and evidence submitted with the application meet the requirements of the further training regulations and the content and scope of further training in the area or field chosen by the applicant as specified in the respective further training course. If this is the case, the applicant will be admitted to the oral examination before the Chamber's Examination Board.

Modul
Sachverhalt

On the basis of the applicant's presentation in the oral examination, the examination board decides whether the applicant has acquired the required special and additional knowledge in the field or area chosen by him/her.

The Chairman of the Examination Board shall inform the State Veterinary Chamber of the result of the examination in writing, enclosing the results report. If the examination is passed, the State Chamber of Veterinary Surgeons will issue the applicant with a certificate confirming the right to use the title.

Anyone who has completed further training in a course of further training that deviates from the further training regulations will receive recognition on application if the further training and the knowledge acquired are equivalent.

Further training that is not equivalent can be completed with full or partial crediting of the previously completed further training periods in accordance with the provisions of the further training regulations. The State Chamber of Veterinary Surgeons decides on the recognition.

Erforderliche Unterlagen
